

For Immediate Release: Jan 2022

Art from India, Sri Lanka, Pakistan, and the UK on display in February

IN THE MIX 2022

Exhibition runs: 22-27th February 2022

More than twenty-four artworks by fifteen diverse artists from India, Sri Lanka, Pakistan and the UK will be on display at Camden Image Gallery in February.

For sixteen years The Noble Sage Art Collection has worked in north London to provide a stage for the very best in South Asian modern and contemporary art. This iteration of IN THE MIX, a popular annual show in London, will be special as it will include a few UK artists that the gallery has taken under its wing. Talented artists such as classical master painter, Anthony Christian, who spent many years in India himself, the late Dante Elsner, a Polish Holocaust survivor artist that turned to Eastern mysticism, and Murugiah, a Sri Lankan artist living in London and creating outstanding art that is surreal, joyful and loud.

Exhibition details

The exhibition will be open 11am-6pm from 22nd to the 27th February.

All welcome, no appointment necessary.

All original works, all for sale.

Camden Image Gallery
174 Royal College Street
London, NW1 0SP

To learn more about the show or opening event on the 22nd February, or indeed to organise an in-person viewing of any of the works, contact the gallery on 07901944997 or by email on reception@thenoblesage.com